Bourbon is a uniquely american product and to be labelled and sold as such must adhere to the following:

- Produced in the United States, from a grain mixture that is at least 51% corn
- Aged in new, charred oak containers
- Distilled to no more than 160 proof, and entered into the barrel for aging at no more than 125 proof
- Bottled at 80 proof or more

Bourbon has no minimum specified duration for its aging period. The exception is straight bourbon, which has a minimum aging requirement of two years. In addition, any bourbon aged less than four years must include an age statement on its label.

Bourbon that meets the above requirements, has been aged for a minimum of two years, and does not have added coloring, flavoring, or other spirits may (but is not required to) be called straight bourbon.

Bourbon that has an age stated on its label must be labeled with the age of the youngest whiskey in the bottle.

Bourbon that is labeled blended (or as a blend) may contain added coloring, flavoring, and other spirits.

Tequila and Mezcal are both made from the agave species of plant. The most flavorful agave products are made using traditional ovens and grinding stones called Tahonas. Most large brands are produced using a very industrialized process. Tequila is produced from exclusively from Blue Weber Agave in the states of Jalisco, Guanajuato, Michoacán, Nayarit, and Tamaulipas, while Mezcal is primarily made in the state of Oaxaca and may be made from a variety of wild agave species including Espadín, Barril, Tobala, Cuixe, Mexicano and Maquey.
